

MOVING ON DIRECTORY USER GUIDE

WHO CAN USE THIS DIRECTORY?

First, this directory is for individuals with disabilities, who want to build on their ABILITIES and strengths.

Second, anyone who wants to obtain contact information and learn about: services, agencies, organizations and businesses.

These listings offer activity, support, and/or information to individuals with disabilities and their families.

WHO CAN HELP YOU WITH USING THE DIRECTORY?

Ask for help from a parent, a teacher, a transition coordinator, a principal etc.

WHAT IS THIS DIRECTORY?

The directory is a resource listing which works just like a telephone book. The main sections of the directory are in alphabetical order. Each entry contains:

- 1) The name of the organization
- 2) Contact information (address, phone/fax, website, and/or email)
- 3) Brief and general information about the organization, and
- 4) Any associated fees

A GOOD WAY TO USE THIS BOOK ON THE GO:

In the back of the directory, there is a form you can tear out and copy and/or use to copy information from the directory to use when surfing the web, making a phone call or, going to the post office etc.

THE WEBSITE FOR THIS DIRECTORY IS:

www3.bucksiu.org/movingon

SECTION*	Provide information to help:
Job Training and Employment Services 	find jobs, with job skills, support on the job skills, with employment rights, etc.
Post Secondary Education Opportunities 	with accessibility, with training, with college, with financial aid, etc.
Independent and Community Living 	with accessibility, with supports. with finances, with different options etc.
Recreation and Leisure Activities 	with accessibility with activities (indoor/outdoor) with clubs etc.
Transportation 	with options to get to places with accessibility etc.
Bucks County Public Schools 	find contact information to the schools.
Toll Free Phone Numbers 	find phone numbers for support that are FREE to call from a landline.
Useful Websites 	find websites with links to even more information, supports and activities.

Not all of the directory entries specialize in serving individuals with disabilities, but can be an opportunity for a person with a disability and their families*