

Act 24 of 2011 Arrest/Conviction Reporting Requirements

In 2011, Act 24 was adopted in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This Act requires the following from you.

As a new hire employee you are asked to complete the attached Act 24 form reporting whether you have been arrested or convicted of any of the listed offenses. This form will be reviewed for accuracy and it will be placed in your file with your other clearances.

During your course of employment with the district, if you are arrested or conviction of any of the listed offenses on this form, you must report this arrest or conviction within 72 hours using this form to the District.

The Act 24 Arrest/Conviction Report form is available for you to access 24/7 on the district website and is available upon request from the Human Resources department. Please complete this form if you need to report an arrest or conviction and return it to the Director of Human Resources, Megan Candido, within 72 hours of an arrest or conviction.

Failure to report a required arrest or conviction could lead to discipline up to and including termination from your position in the district.

We thank you for your cooperation with this law. Please contact the Human Resources Department if you have any questions.
